

Wetland Plant Identification for Coastal Southern California
Wetlands Training Institute
June 2 – 4, 2008

PRELIMINARY ITINERARY

Each day will begin at 8:00 a.m. Make sure you know where we will be meeting because it will be a different place each day. We will break around midday for lunch and hopefully be done by 5:00 p.m.

Monday, June 4th. Meet at HELIX Environmental. 7578 El Cajon Blvd., La Mesa.

Morning

Meet at for overview of morphology and vocabulary for identifying plants.

Afternoon

Mission Trail Regional Park/Riparian Forest and Scrubs and Freshwater marsh
Brown Parcel Preserve/Vernal pools

Tuesday, June 5th. Meet at Starbucks at the southwest corner of Mission Ave. and College Blvd, Oceanside.

Morning

Foss Lake Preserve/Southern willow forest and scrub, freshwater and alkali marsh and meadow

Afternoon

Guajome County Park/Riparian forest, freshwater and alkali marsh and meadow

Wednesday, June 6th. Meet in parking lot of Torrey Pines State Reserve. On N. Torrey Pines Road between road and beach.

Morning

Los Penasquitos Lagoon (backside) brackish marsh and riparian forest and scrubs
Lopez Canyon/Riparian forest and scrubs

Afternoon

Los Penasquitos Lagoon/Coastal salt marsh